

For this card making workshop you need to print the first two pages of this PDF.

The first page right here where you can see the dotted line, you need to cut along this dotted line to create a square and discard this part where I have put the writing.

The second page just simply needs to be folded in half along the line shown.

It is best to use card, but this can be made with paper if you don't have card.

---

